

Thalia United Methodist Youth Covenant

Our goal is for everyone to have a safe, fun and spiritual time at Thalia youth events. To ensure that this happens, the following guidelines will apply. In signing this covenant I agree to live by the following guidelines during all TUMC Youth meetings and events.

I agree to the following and understand that if I do not obey the following I will be given one warning and then my parent/ guardian will be required to remove me from the TUMC Youth meeting/event.

- I will abstain from excessive PDA (Public Displays of Affection) which includes but is not exclusive to the following:
 - Holding Hands
 - Kissing
 - Putting my arms around someone
 - Etc...
- I will adhere to the Thalia United Methodist Youth Dress code, which is:
 - No spaghetti straps
 - Undergarments must remain under the garments
 - One piece bathing suits/ no speedos
 - Shorts must be finger tip length
 - No low cut shirts without an undershirt
- I understand that this is a Youth event and therefore I will abstain from:
 - Vulgar Language
 - Rudeness
 - Being Disrespectful
 - Gossiping
 - Harmful Practical jokes

I understand that if I do not obey the following I WILL BE SENT HOME (my parents/ guardians will be called to pick me up) without a warning.

- I will abstain from the use of any drugs/tobacco/ alcohol products
- I understand there will be a no tolerance policy when it comes to violence, regardless of who started it both persons who act in a violent manner will be sent home
- I understand there will be separate designated areas for both boys and girls, and I will stay out of the area of the opposite sex from lights out until after breakfast clean up.
- I understand that in order to keep everyone safe we will be under adult supervision at all times. Wandering off with another youth or by myself will not be tolerated unless otherwise stated. At that time a buddy system or another system will be implemented.

The adult/youth leadership team present at the event will make decisions regarding compliance with these guidelines and their decision is final.

I understand that if I tell Sarah or an adult volunteer that I am actively participating in sexual activity or anything illegal they will be required to tell my parents/guardians.

I agree to all of the above statements and understand that violation of any of these statements will either result in a warning or immediate dismissal from the program. I know that TUMC Youth group is a safe and fun environment and by signing below I am agreeing to do everything in my power to keep it that way.
